On April 5, 1975, a conference was held at the Yale Law school,
New Haven, Connecticut on the subject "The CIA and World Peace".
One of the speakers was Victor Marchetti, a former staff officer to the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. We would like to publish his talk in book form.

Enclosed is a copy of his remarks which we propose to publish. I understand there is a court order which requires review by the CIA of his writings prior to publication. In view of the enclosed statement being a report of his talk, I am sending it to you to request authorization for including it in the published book.

Sincerely,

Howard Frazier
Executive Director
